About Bucklin:

Bucklin was founded in by the four Bucklin Siblings, Arden, Kate, Ted and Will. In addition to farming the historic Old Hill Ranch, the family owns the adjacent Oak Hill Farm where they produce and sell over 250 varieties of flowers, fruits and vegetables. In the year 2000 they decided to further complicate their lives by starting a winery. Both the viticulture and winemaking are managed by Will Bucklin the former winemaker for King Estate. Bucklin produces approximately 1,800 cases annually.

Old Hill Ranch was established in 1852 and stands today as Sonoma's oldest vineyard^{1, 2}. Old Hill was founded by William McPherson Hill who is known to be the first viticulturist to import non-Mission grapes into Sonoma³. In 1860 Hill was cultivating a grape variety he called Black St. Peters which he later determined to be Zinfandel⁴. It was the 1866 vintage from these vines that produced the worlds first really famous Zinfandel⁵.

Today, with the major exception of the invention of the diesel tractor engine, Old Hill Ranch is farmed much the same as it was during its youth. The vineyard is still dry-farmed, and these thirsty old vines eke out an average yield of 1.5 tons per acre. The field-blend consists of over two dozen grape varieties which are all blended into our Bucklin Old Hill Ranch Zinfandel, and the vineyard has been farmed using organic techniques for over 30 years.

2011 was a cool and wet year but it was also a bountiful year on Old Hill (which helps make up for the previous year's bruising early season heat that literally fried much of our crop.) The cool wet spring lasted until the last rains of July and then we had significant early rain in October, just after the vines had been picked.

Zinfandel, Petite Sirah and Mourvedre, the early ripeners, are picked and fermented separately from the other mixed black varieties - primarily Alicante Bouchet and Grenache among over 30 varieties. The fermentations are relatively cool and long, and pressing occurred after three weeks on the skins. The two lots are then blended at the first racking in March. Aging is done in 60 gal French oak barrels (40% new) for 22 months. We use minimal sulfites and the wine is not filtered or fined.

Old Hill Zin is known for its complexity and the 2011 is no exception. The spice character tends towards black pepper, cardamom and lavender while the fruit component has an impressive array of raspberries, blackberries, and ripe plums. The French oak contributes toast and vanilla aromas while the tannins are very ripe and smooth on the finish.
